Artist Bio

Licensed artist Carol Eldridge, trained as a printmaker and illustrator, has been creating successful designs since she graduated from Massachusetts College of Art in Boston. Her whimsical and colorful design themes reflect the wondrous pleasures of everyday life. Playful and happy, her designs are cutting edge. Her work is licensed on a wide range of products from giftware to tabletop to fabrics to innovative product design.

Carol's designs have won many awards, appeared in national magazines, and are sold in major stores and gift shops around the country. Many catalogs feature her work in their pages. Her well-known coffee-themed designs are featured on kitchen textiles and can be seen on the hit television show "Judging Amy".

Carol's inspiration comes from her extensive travels both in the U.S. and abroad, where she often gathers references to develop her collections. Carol is never without her sketchbook and pen!
