

Gil-Jin Foster Bio

Gil-Jin Foster is an illustrator and graphic designer in Spokane, Washington. She was born in Taegu, South Korea. She moved to Spokane in her late 20's where she earned a BA in Fine Arts from Gonzaga University, followed by a degree in Visual Arts from the Seattle Art Institute. She started work as a graphic designer in a printing company then moved into painting and illustrating fabrics. She's also designed artwork and illustrations for children's materials including posters and textbooks, as well as for a children's quarterly magazine. She is currently creating her own in freelance illustrations for greeting cards and fabric design.

She enjoys water- color painting, especially whimsical characters, floral designs, and Christian themes. She's also competent at realistic representations of animals and people.

Gil-Jin has a grown and married daughter and still lives in Spokane with her husband, where she works in her home studio.

Garden Gifts is her first collection with P&B.
