

HARRIET HARGRAVE

Harriet Hargrave is one of the best-known quilters in the world. She has been quilting for nearly 30 years, and has been involved in the business of quilting for almost as long.

Harriet is not only a master quilter, but also an author, teacher and quilt shop owner. She opened Harriet's Treadle Arts in 1980 in Wheatridge, CO. She is the author of numerous quilt books, including the classic Heirloom Machine Quilting, and also The Art of Classic Quiltmaking and Mastering Machine Applique.

Harriet is an innovative expert in machine quilting. She has done a great deal to promote and improve the art of machine quilting, including writing, lecturing and teaching thousands of students.

Her expertise has led her to a collaboration with Hobbs Bonded Fibers, participating in the development of quality quilt battings. She has been named one of the top leaders of the quilt world.

This is Harriet's third fabric collection with P&B Textiles. It is the start of a series she will be producing with the company based on her extensive collection of antique and heirloom quilts.
