

BIO

Joan Hamme

Joan Hamme is an expert in antique quilts and fabrics. She is co-author of the book, "Quilts: The Fabric of Friendship". She has given lectures integrating slide presentations on the quilts of York County.

Among her accomplishments:

- Chairman of the York County (PA) Documentation Project
- Guest curator for two antique quilt exhibits for The York County Heritage Trust.
- Liaison between the York County Heritage Trust and McCall's Vintage Quilts for its Spring 2005 issue featuring quilts from the collection.
- Member of the Exhibits and Collections Committee for the Trust.

Joan's affiliations include:

- York Quilters Guild
- York County Heritage Trust
- American Quilt Study Group
- Mid-Appalachian Quilters
- American Quilters Society
- The Phelps NY Historical Society
- Member, Fran's Vintage Friends quilt study group
- The Sisters quilt study group

With each of these groups, Joan has participated in curating antique quilt exhibits for Quilt Odyssey in PA.

