

Carolyn Gavin

Bio

A flower child, born and raised in the 60's in South Africa, Carolyn travelled Europe, Israel and Turkey, and lived in London for a year, before finally making the giant leap across the pond to Toronto, Canada. After more than 20 years freelancing and designing for her company, Ecojot, (a 100% recycled stationery company formed 3 years ago) Carolyn signed with agent Lilla Rogers. This has given Carolyn's work a whole new perspective. Now her fresh, vibrant and exotic designs can be found on all sorts of products, including the Wild Thyme fabric collection. Fun, fresh, pretty and versatile... all her designs can be mixed and matched in an endless variety of creative ways.

Carolyn's work with Ecojot can be seen at Barnes and Noble, Anthropologie, The Container Store, Borders, Paperchase, Archivers and Paper Source. Quilt shops would have a great advantage over these stores by carrying both her fabric and the matching paper products!
