Julie Ingelman has been designing for the Home Fashion Industry for over 25 years, beginning in bedding, textiles, and wallcovering and evolving into dinnerware, kitchen textiles, rugs, and paper, party, and gift products.

"I believe my inspiration and creativity continue to flourish because of my Midwest upbringing. Growing up in a prairie state with four seasons and an abundance of woods, meadows, and wildlife has provided me with a constantly changing landscape for inspiration. Every day provides a creative new canvas for my work."

Today Julie designs from the picturesque serene setting of her lake home studio, nestled in the tall pines overlooking lovely Lake Margaret in northern Minnesota.
